

Meeting of Directors of International Relations of Cuban Universities, Havana. April 2019

In Havana, on April 10, 11 and 12, 2019, the Meeting of Directors of International Relations of the Cuban universities was held, where a working session was held as part of the dissemination of the learnings of the Project "Strengthening the Internationalization between European and Latin American universities "(FORINT) and the achievements of the sustainability of the results obtained.

Dr. C Mabelin Armenteros Amaya, Director of International Relations of the Agrarian University of Havana "Fructuoso Rodríguez Pérez" conducted a training to the Directors of International Relations not participating in the FORINT Project on the design and development of their Strategic Internationalization Plans .

