

International Congress “Universidad 2018”. Presentation of the results of the FORINT Project.

Within the framework of the 11th International Congress of Higher Education "Universidad 2018" held between the days between February 12 and 16, 2018, under the slogan "The University and the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development" in the centenary of the Reformation of Córdoba, developed at the Convention Center of Havana; presented the results achieved with the execution of the FORINT project with a regional focus and the goals proposed by the Cuban and Panamanian universities for the development of the internationalization process. National and International Delegates to the Congress were present at the meeting. The presentation was made by Dr.C Christophe Terrasse (Project Director of the EFMD) and the Dr.C. Mabelin Armenteros Amaya (Director of International Relations of the UNAH and Cuban Coordinator of the FORINT Project) with the presence of Dr. Eric Cournel (General Director of the EFMD), directors of Cuban universities, Panamanians and other delegates to the Congress of several countries. The attendees showed interest in the learning and good practices generated within the framework of FORINT.

Presentación realizada por la Directora de Relaciones Internacionales Dr.C. Mabelin Armenteros Amaya en el marco del Congreso

Entre las acciones del Congreso se realiza un recorrido por el Complejo Científico Docente de la provincia Mayabeque y en particular por la UNAH.

Encuentro con los delegados en la UNAH