

Workshop: "Strategic Plans for Internationalization", University of Ghent, Belgium.

Date: 8 - 9 November, 2018.

On November 8 and 9, the workshop "Strategic Plans for Internationalization" was held at the University of Ghent as part of Work Package 5 "Work plans for internationalization". The workshop was attended by two representatives of Cuban and Panamanian universities.

Dr. Frederick de Decker, Director of the International Relations Office of the University of Ghent, introduced the participants in the process of internationalization of a higher education institution, setting an example of their own university.

For her part, Dr. Fiona Hunter, Associate Director of the Center for the Internationalization of Higher Education (CHEI) at the Catholic University of the Sacred Cuore in Milan, Italy, gave a seminar that allowed participants to continue working in new phases and improving the internationalization plans of their universities. The results of these works should be sent to Dra. Hunter and the mentors of the project before the end of January to be reviewed so that they can continue working on them before the next workshop. This seminar counted as mentor with Mrs. Marta Busquets (International Academic Relations of ESADE Business School).

As a culmination to the seminar there was a meeting between representatives of the University of Gantes, the rectors of the University of Camagüey and the Agrarian University of Havana, Dr. Lajes and Dr. Taboada respectively, as well as the Minister of Higher Education of the Republic of Cuba, Hon. Mr. José Ramón Saborido.
