

Final Conference FORINT Project

The final conference of the FORINT project took place at the University of Panama from 9 to 11 October this year. Coordinators and directors of the participating institutions attended the meeting to show the results and impact that FORINT has had in the internationalization process in each university member of the consortium as well as the Cuban Ambassador in Panama, Her Excellency Mrs. Lydia Margarita González Navarro and staff of the diplomatic corps accredited in the country; Rectors of both Panamanian institutions of Higher Education, President of the UDUAL and other officials of Panamanian institutions. In addition, professors participating in the different activities of FORINT throughout the project.

As part of the actions of this meeting, a workshop was developed for reflection and presentation of the results achieved from the implementation of the Roadmaps and Strategic Plans for internationalization (2019-2023), designed during the implementation of the project.

Examples of good practice have allowed the process to be strengthened and the links of the Triangular and South-South cooperation consortium to be strengthened. FORINT shows great results and culminates the activities of the Work Packages under the slogan: "Internationalization for All".
